REBOUND
EDUCATION, ADVOCACY & REHABILITATION

About Rebound:

Rebound is a grassroots, community-based, non-profit based in the Twin Cities. It was created to regain possession of the life trajectory of young Black males in the Twin Cities. Rebound, Inc. seeks to address the overrepresentation of young Black males in the juvenile justice system by providing innovative, holistic, and community-centered, education, advocacy, and rehabilitation solutions

Jordan House is a group home providing culturally specific services to social services or court-involved males between the ages of 14 and 21 to successfully reintegrate them into their families and communities

Services include therapy (individual, group, and family), community reintegration activities, college tours, leadership activities, community service, culturally specific mentors, and more

Services Provided

- Screening and assessment

- Social and interpersonal skill development

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy

- Transition and life skills development

- Opportunities for physical exercise and recreation

- Access to community resources to meet the educational, medical, dental, mental health, and chemical dependency needs of its residents

- Family Support
